"Big" George Foreman is back! After a ten-year absence from the ring, the former Heavyweight Champion is on the road to the Title again! The Goliath from Texas has won 26 out of 27 fights in the last four years, facing one young highranked contender after the next. The 43-year-old Foreman first took down Steve Zouski in a four-round knockout and followed with impressive knockouts over Gerry Cooney and Adilson Rodriguez, putting Foreman among the top competitors for the Championship. The 260 lb. giant George has an astounding lifetime record of 71 wins and 3 losses. Foreman began his career in 1969 after winning the gold medal in the 1968 Olympics. He quickly developed a reputation as a fighter with a devastating punch, winning 37 times without a loss, 34 by knockout, before his match with then-Heavyweight Champ Joe Frazier. In 1973, at the age of twenty-five, he took the Heavyweight Title by knockout from Frazier. He lost to Muhammad Ali in 1974. Now older and wiser, Foreman exhibits the concentration and fierce professionalism of a veteran. In his recent fight against Alex Stewart, both boxers took a severe beating but Foreman's incredible endurance kept him in the fight through all ten brutal rounds against the younger Stewart. Foreman was a man who came to fight and win. He did. Eighteen years after capturing the Heavyweight Belt, the gregarious boxer with an appetite for fame, glory, and food is once again in line for the Title. And it looks like nothing will stop George Foreman now!
